The Oregon hop yield this year promises to be the largest the State has ever known.

Ex-Governor Kinkead of this city is mentioned as a Republican candidate for State Senator.

William Woodburn will assist in the prosecution of Mrs. Hartley the slayer of Senator Foley.

Latest reports from the Oriental war are to the effect that both sides have won several victories.

Mrs. A. Sprinsteen, formerly Miss Gertie Barnett, is in this city visiting her aunt Mrs. J. McQuarters.

Mrs. C. N. Barkley and daughters Miss Neva Wilson, and Miss Lou Tennant have gone to the Lake for a month's stay.

Mr. Grant, the Capitol gardener, left last evening for Grass Valley on a visit to his brother, whom he has not seen for five years.

Ethel Le Ray was carved to death on Monday in San Francisco by her lover, in a room on O'Farrell Street over Campi's restaurant.

The only thing at stake with the Republican party of Nevada this year seems to be the spoils of office.

Hurrah for the G. O. P. and the party perquisites.

S. P. Kelly, at one time State Superintendent of Schools, and later Rector of St. Peter's church in this city, is now in charge of an American chapel in Paris, France.

What can be more delightful than a perfect Nevada day; the blue sky, the gentle wind, the warm sunshine, and the invigorating ozone that one finds no where else on earth outside the Sagebrush state.

People who send the APPEAL letters telling how many trout they are catching in the mountains, will do well to accompany their epistles with some fish. Not for publication but as a guarantee of good faith.

Isn't it a little strange that neither of the old parties ever appeared to manifest any anxiety about silver legislation until a new party sprang up with a million votes and threatened to smash things, if the white metal wasn't restored.

Hutchings and Anderson, formerly of the crew of the notorious schooner Arciles, who are charged by Captain Cartel with having robbed the schooners strong-box, while the master was in the Sitka jail, have been sent from Port Townsend to Sitka.

Some of the papers are trying to make out that while Melville the convicted clerk of the California Bank was at liberty he was always a gentleman. The Alameda Encinal however closes the case by remarking that a thief can never be a gentleman.

The pictures of Charles Gardner, the Sweet Singer, which gaze at one from the dead walls, have a close resemblance to Mr. Watson of the Keeley Institute. Only of course our own genial Watson is several degrees handsomer than Gardner lithographic.

The Viceroy of China now directs the maneuvers of the Army without his yellow jacket, which the Emperor ordered him to peel the other day. He says he finds it much more comfortable this hot weather to be without the jacket, and has cabled Abe Cohn for a new Summer coat.

The conductor and two brakemen on the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company were severely injured by the giving way of the Alto bridge, a short distance from Walla Walla Wash. The tender, fifteen cars and a heavily laden caboose went down. The locomotive got over.

"The most deplorable thing about their infernal new party movement" said a State officer yesterday who had held office off and on nearly all his life, is the fact that the men engaged in it are mere office seekers. And the worst feature of it is that some of them want your office.

The State Board of Equalization completed its three weeks of labor at Sacramento Monday, a.d., as a result, the railroads of the State will this year have to pay taxes on nearly $94,000,000 worth of property. More than half of this is for back taxes, the balance being taxes for 1894.

ENGLAND'S ARISTOCRACY.

Shocking Revelations in a London Divorce Suit.

New York, Aug. 8.—A dispatch from London says the country at large has been terribly shocked during the last few weeks by revelations in the divorce courts, both in England and Scotland, which have vividly brought home the lax morality of the aristocracy. Some of the evidence has done considerable towards dissipating the belief that vice is a hothouse growth of large cities, for it is shown that, on the contrary, it flourishes the most among the pampered idlers, men and women alike, who find time hanging heavy on their hands in country houses and whose appetites are too jaded and unhealthy to be satisfied with simple country pleasures.

The revelations in the case of Lord Claude Alexander against his wife, Lady Diana Montgomerie, youngest daughter of the late Earl of Eglinton, and which has just been concluded before Judge Lord Killachy at Edinburgh, is said to have rivaled anything of the kind since the famous Mordaunt case many years ago, in which the Prince of Wales figured. Nearly every male visitor to the Alexander castle fell a victim to the wiles of Lady Diana, and the sworn evidence showed that her indiscretions were practiced not only under the same roof which sheltered her husband, but in arbors, woods, caves and other well-secreted portions of the estate.

The eminent lawyer, who led the array of counsel for the defense, actually said in his argument that a door of communication between a room occupied by the hostess and her male guests was too great a temptation to be resisted by the aristocratic women caged up in the country and remote from cities, to which the Judge in summing up replied: "Heaven help us if female morality is at so low an ebb."

Explanatory.

People who are constantly stopping the editor of the APPEAL and calling his attention to his red nose supplemented with references to the Keeley Institute, are informed that the color is not the hue of the forbidden grape or a reflection from distillations of the Kansas corn fields, but the genuine sunburn of honest toil gained on the dead level irrigating Nevada grown corn and sagebrush alfalfa. We have in our mind large numbers of our fellow townsmen whose noses we would like to see colored by the genial sun ray under the same auspices that has made a holy show of our own prominent proboscis.

COAST NEWS.

James McRorie, who went to Vancouver from California six years ago, was murdered by the Indians. The body was horribly mutilated.

There is a bitter fight between the saloonists and anti-saloonists in Fresno county and it may influence the elections in that section.

Charles Anderson a ranch hand working for Moody Bros. in Mound Valley Elko county was killed last Friday by a hay derrick falling on him.

Arthur Greathead, aged fourteen, while in a cannery at San Jose yesterday, had all of the fingers of his right hand amputated by a parring machine which he was examining.

A lot of tramps at Grants Pass who were begging food and money last Friday, secured money enough to buy a keg of beer and some whisky, after which they undertook to run the town.

The first verdict of murder in the first degree recorded in Idaho in many years was found early Sunday morning at Pocatello against Charles Perny. He murdered Patrick McNamara at Lava, June 25th.

Arthur Mackay has been convicted at Angels or robbing the Angels and Milton stage last April. When the verdict was rendered the defendant arose and said: "Gentlemen of the jury you have convicted an innocent boy."

The farmers of Silver Creek, in the Palouse county, in Washington, have decided to pay harvest laborers in wheat, the wheat to be delivered at the warehouse and the laborers to accept it at 50 cents per bushel, allowing him the same wages as usual.

The friends of D. L. Bliss say that nothing will induce him to run for Governor.

VEGETABLE FLOWERS.

Beautiful Specimens if You But Let Them Bloom.

Few people have any idea of the beautiful flowers which vegetables produce if they are allowed to bloom and go to seed.

Last summer the writer had nearly an acre of onions which were planted the fall before and allowed to go to seed. The green stems reached a height of between three and four feet and then burst into a white, fluffy display which at a distance of say fifty yards had all the appearance of a field of white chrysanthemums, in fact many visitors went away with that idea.

The carrot if allowed to go to seed produces a bunch of white, greenish spikes with small delicate flowers at the end which seem like a solid bunch. It makes a very delicate flower to decorate a dinner table if placed in a long necked vase.

The humble potato is another beautiful flowering vegetable. The flower is a bunch of delicate creamy petals, but some are pure white, or of a purplish color. The common pea has in its blossom all the colors of the rainbow. The petals are usually some neutral color with innumerable purple and red veinsacing them and under a powerful glass the fine lines and tints are as gorgeous as a sunset.

Alfalfa, beans, turnips and pumpkins produce gorgeous blossoms all rivaling the high priced conservatory flowers, both in the sweet scents and showy colors, but in the matter of bouquets they are never thought of.

Some time when you have a party of friends to dinner decorate the table entirely with vegetable blossoms and you will set everybody exclaiming and guessing. Then tag a lot of high sounding names to them and they will think you have taken more pains with your flower garden than anybody in town.

Last Night's Fire.

Last evening about 6:30 o'clock the Garaventa hotel was discovered to be on fire. In a few minutes the three fire companies were at the scene, assisted by two-thirds of the town. The fire started from a defective flue that leads from the kitchen. The household goods were saved, and the damage to the property will not exceed $300. It was insured for $900 and is owned by Joe Garaventa.

Antone Morello, a farmer, was hunting deer on the boarder line between Sonoma and Marin counties. He was riding a spirited animal. A deer was raised by his dog and Morello was unseated. His foot caught in the stirrup and he was dragged through the brush for over a mile. The horse was stopped by the end of the halter rope, on which was a large knot, catching in the forks of a tree. Morello will die of his injuries.

Go to Golden's for your spec tacles eyeglasses and optical goods, and all kinds of repairing at bottom prices. m24

Truth About the Strike.

President Gompers of the Federation of Labor has an able article in the August "North American Review" and "Federationist" concerning the Pullman and A. R. U. strike. It reviews the cause and justifies the strikers. Every man whose capital consists of brains and muscles, and who aims at an honest living, should read these articles. It costs just half as much as a cigar and does not "end in smoke."
